CELEBRATION.

The Seventy-fourth Birthday of Her Imperial Majesty Queen Victoria.

First Day of the Celebration in the City of Victoria an Immense Success.

The Horse Races and Other Sports---The Finest Lacrosse Match Ever Witnessed Here.

The earliest streak of dawn this morning as it empurpled the pale crest of mighty Mount Baker in the east and flashed the attendant clouds into a rosy glow above and around seemed to presage for Victoria's celebration of Her Majesty's Birthday glorious weather. And the elements have combined most loyally with the Queen's loyal subjects here to do honor to the occasion. In almost every portion of Victoria's vast domains to-day either the din of preparation or the gladsome noise of actual festivity have resounded. Many places, like Victoria, are celebrating two days, there being too much solid amusement to crowd into one day. It would be pleasant news to learn that all of them had enjoyed, as we Victorians have, such magnificent weather. The fervent, caresses of old Sol, himself seemingly in hearty co-operation with the rejoicing mortals of this section of the empire, were most acceptably tempered by the delicious breeze which played upon the city all day, odoriferous with the balm of the heaving sea, refreshing, healthful and sweet. This indispensible breath of ocean, mingled with ozone, the life-restoring, is one of Victoria's peculiar charms. Many of the visitors who had arrived in the city on Saturday and yesterday were early afoot, before the dew drops had ceased to sparkle in the bosom of the myriad delicate flower-forms on Beacon Hill. It was then they wandered for a calm, soul-satisfying walk by the brink of the mighty deep, almost in the shadow of the eternal mountains with their glistening crowns of everlasting snow, with the breath of the morning soft upon their brows and their feet among the most gorgeous texture on earth, nature's own spring carpet of flowers and soft emerald grass, beyond imitation by man's most cunning skill. It seemed strange to meet so many people taking this early walk, in view of the alleged propensity of the Pacific coast people to lie abed until the day is far advanced. But it is safe to state that those who "shook off dull sloth and early rose" were trebly rewarded by the grandeur of the scene they witnessed from the park, and the delightful sniff of the fragrant dew dampened flowers, mingled with the perfume of the sea.

Year by year the celebration of the Queen's Birthday in Victoria is becoming an event of great importance. In former years the celebration was indeed the event of the twelve months, but never assumed anything like the proportions it now does. The generosity with which the citizens have generally subscribed to the fund, and the hearty manner in which others have given their time and energy to carrying out the preliminary arrangements, have contributed to make the event a success. Never has it been chronicled that the Queen's birthday celebration at Victoria was a failure; it is a point of pride with the citizens that success shall always be written in red letters in the 24th of May space on the calendar. To such veterans as Mr. Broderick the citizens of Victoria owe a debt of gratitude. His exertions every year have not only contributed to a very large extent to the success of the celebration, but have awakened, fired the enthusiasm of the younger men and made them take hold and pull all together with a will. All the principal firms in the city have invariably put down their names for substantial sums, and everybody in fact has given liberally of his means to make the day one worthy of the city and the Queen. As old age advances upon Her Majesty the loyalty and devotion of her subjects appear to intensify. She is undoubtedly the best loved sovereign that ever sat upon a throne. The American visitors to-day were among the most enthusiastic in evincing their admiration of her character by the whole-souled way in which they entered into the various amusements, and gave themselves up to the thorough enjoyment of the day. The Americans have the highest opinion of this city and the more they see of it the more they are pleased with its situation, surroundings and climate. To day they made the fullest use of the opportunity afforded them to inspect it from various coigns of vantage. Old timers say the number of visitors in the city to-day considerably exceeds the attendance in any former year. This is not to be wondered at, as the advertising committee went to a good deal of trouble to let the people down the Sound and on the Mainland know what was in store for them if they visited the city this celebration. In consequence it was noted that since Saturday every boat reaching the city brought great crowds of pleasure seekers. These, after securing suitable quarters, dispersed about the city. The Princess Louise from New Westminster brought down a large contingent of prominent Fraser River people on Saturday evening. Among them were noted Fred Turner with his bicycle, and apparently in excellent trim for the hard race at the Park this morning. MacLean's sliding seat skiff was also brought over, but the redoubtable Alec was nowhere to be seen. He will probably be in time to take his place on the line to-morrow. Blomfield and Springer, of Westminster, canoeists of excellent quality, arrived to-day. Blomfield is a young aquatic athlete with an Eastern reputation for the manner in which he can shove a canoe through the water. The pair are dark horses and should not be under-estimated by the local men.

The City of Seattle came in yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Tacoma with a special excursion from the City of Destiny. She was crowded, and among the crowd came the members of the Tacoma Gun Club and many other athletes of note, ready to contest with their British Columbian cousins in the various games of strength and agility. She made the trip in very quick time over a glassy sea and in such weather as gave all aboard a superb view of the scenery along the Sound and the Straits.

To-day there arrived from New Westminster, with the biggest crowd aboard that ever left that ambitious little city bound for the capital, the City of Nanaimo, specially chartered by the New Westminster lacrosse club. The boys are to be heartily congratulated upon the complete financial success of their venture. The Royal City people have backed them up right manfully. The trip was a delightful one. An early start was made from Westminster, hundreds along the docks giving ringing cheers as the handsome steamer swung out into the stream, gaily bedizened with bright bunting; these were royally returned by the crowd on board. The Nanaimo then headed swiftly down the Fraser and made such time as delighted all accustomed to the tedious progress of the every-day steamers. The gulf was like a mirror glistening in the morning sun as the Nanaimo left the mouth of the river and headed for Plumper's Pass. The crowd aboard amused themselves in various ways and the lacrosse boys discussed probabilities and gave plenty of attention to their paraphernalia, tightened and loosened the strings of ther lacrosses or saw that their shoes and other equipments were in perfect order. It was generally conceded among them that the game this afternoon would be a very different sort of a meeting to the ones they used to have with the old Victoria team. All hands agreed that they were going to face a combination of players who were not by any means novices or in physical strength or endurance inferiors.

From Vancouver came another great crowd of searchers for pleasure and amusement. The Islander was well loaded last night. She made an extra trip to-day and will bring down probably a much larger number than yesterday. Several well-known athletes were among her passengers last night. Laurenson, of Vancouver, the famed young bicyclist who so gallantly bore away the TIMES medal last year, came down, bringing his trim steel steed ready for the fray, and also bringing the medal, which he, of course, did his very best to retain and all his opponents their very best to wrest from him. Dave Smith, the champion amateur sprinter of the province, was another noted Vancouver athlete; his performances on the track are too well known to require recital here. The terminal city people are noted for the interest they take in all kinds of sports, and more especially in lacrosse; that accounts for the huge representation Vancouver had at the Caledonian grounds this afternoon. More than half their lacrosse team are here to see the great match between Westminster and Victoria.

The day's programme began this morning at 9 at Beacon Hill, with the baseball match between Victoria (James Bay) and Tacoma. The description and result of this keenly contested event will be found elsewhere in this issue. The spectators from the Sound betrayed the greatest interest in the game and enthusiastically applauded every piece of good play on the part of their team, while not ignoring the expertness of the home club.

The older Victorians don't know what they missed in the bicycle races they didn't used to have. The two wheeled steed has only lately asserted its claims to quite as much interest as the older sport of horse-racing. On account of the splendid work done by some of the local riders, Victoria people have lately taken a deep interest in this great sport. Anybody who was present in the throng at Beacon Hill Park this forenoon must have been convinced of this fact. It is all for glory bicycle racing, there is no "jockeying," or "pulling," or selling a race. The riders go in to beat the field if they can and that is what makes it so interesting as well as amusing to witness. A grand exhibition of fine riding was provided the city's guests this morning. The results will be found in another column. As will be seen, Victoria has much to be proud of in her young cyclists who so gallantly won their spurs on a very hard field to-day. The manner in which the races were managed by the gentlemen having charge was highly commendable. There was no time lost in idle disputes, but every race was called in a business-like way and started without unnecessary delay. The handicapping was done by Mr. C. A. Godson to the satisfaction of all concerned, and it is by no means an enviable task. Mr. W. Christie is a fine starter and deserves praise for the promptness with which he got his men on the score and the fair way in which he sent them away. Mr. J. E. Wilson's judging was fairness itself, and Messrs. Godson and Christie discharged the duties of referees to perfection. Messrs. T. Edwards and W. P. Patterson held the stop watches on all the races, and their experience at the business can be taken as surety that the time of all the races is correct to the fraction of a second. The bicycle races were run under the rules of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association. It may be mentioned that the track was in as perfect condition as it is possible to get an earth track. There was a little dust for the followers in the races, but that does not count when a man is peddaling as if for dear life. Fortunately there was a nice breeze blowing, which helped to make the heat of the sun less oppressive. When Victoria can boast a cinder path of the latest scientific construction, kept in perfect order all the year round, there will be some time made by the home amateurs that will attract the attention of the hidalgos of the Manhattan Athletic Club, and bring front rank wheelman from all over the States and Canada.

At 1 o'clock the amateur contests began at Beacon Hill grounds, the good rule of punctuality being observed by the gentlemen in charge of the events. It is a pleasure to report that one of the best exhibitions of outdoor athletics ever witnessed in Victoria took place. The time made in the foot racing was remarkably good, and the showing made by the Victorian competitors justifies a little pride being indulged. The events for the navy are generally interesting and invariably funny. Jack ashore is a creature who loves fun and frolic above anything else. In the half mile race specially for the navy there was no lack of entries, the required three to make the race being something like sextupled. Why there should be anything funnier about a sailor running at full speed than any man would be very hard to explain, but there undoubtedly is something mirth-provoking about it or the crowd would not double itself up in spasms of merriment the way it does. But among the jolly Jacks of the fleet there are many runners whose powers are in no way to be despised by the best amateurs; some of them were in the race to-day and made excellent time. The athletic exhibition, for which a handsome silver medal was given, was extremely interesting and won the plaudits of the throng very frequently. It was a great scheme to pit the brawny artillerymen of C battery against the stalwart bluejackets from the fleet. The artist, the sculptor, the anatomist or the physical culture connoisseur who happened to be in the great crowd to-day at the park must have enjoyed the spectacle afforded by the nobly proportioned frames of the soldiers and sailors. There is something in the aspect of a strong man that awakens admiration alike in the mind of the savage and of the philosopher. It is perfect human nature to admire strong, symmetrical limbs and bodies, and it is a gratifying reflection to know that the defendees of Britain's queen, the gallant fellows who carry her arms on land and sea, tower head and shoulders above the soldiers and sailors of all other nations. Napier, the author of the first history of the Peninsular War, draws a splendid picture of the contrast between the British soldier or sailor and those of every other nation. "They can be picked out anywhere," he says, "not only by their bold, free, dauntless look and bearing, but by their tall, massive frames and generally athletic appearance." The two teams at the park to-day more than bore out this, for they were the very flower of that great force to which Napier so eloquently refers, men who would have been picked on a team out of the whole service. It is scarcely necessary to remark that the "tug" was something to arouse enthusiasm to the highest pitch. The Warspite was very fully represented in all departments of her economy; the blue jackets had a team, and also the marines and the stokers. The Champion and Melpomene sent the pick of their crews, all splendid types of men and filled with the determination to put their ship's name in the place of honor.

Mr. Lorimer as starter in the various racing events gave every satisfaction, and the familiar countenance of Mr. John Braden, who acted efficiently as referee in all the contests, showed that his interest in sports is as fresh and strong as ever. Mr. T. Edwards kept the time and Sir R. K. Arbuthnot and Mr. W. A. Ward in the judging left nothing to be desired. All the events went off without mishap and in a pleasant manner; every person in the immense crowd that looked on seemed to feel that nothing that could have conduced to the complete enjoyment of the day had been forgotten on the programme. The vendor of iced lemonade and other "soft" drinks, of candies, nuts and pastry did a roaring trade. To see the stout and rubicund citizen quaffing a glass of lemonade "in the shade" with a mournful wink to his friends that intimated his deep regret that there was not a nip of something in the nature of corn juice in the mixture, was one of the amusing sights.

The city presented the appearance of a deserted place. Hardly the rumble of a hack disturbed the funeral silence. The stores were all closed and the sidewalks untenanted by the usual pavement politician and his friends, but to-day is not likely to be nearly so "emptying" upon the city traffic as to-morrow afternoon, when the great event of the celebration, the grand regatta, will be held on the Arm. The lacrosse match this afternoon took every man and boy who could spare the needful, and the fair sex was fairly en battalion.

The detailed list of the various events of to-day is as follows. The time and other particulars given are official:

THE EXCURSIONS.

The first party of excursionists arrived from the Mainland and Sound on Saturday afternoon and evening, the Kingston, Louise and Islander all having large passenger lists. The City of Seattle brought over a number on Sunday morning, and about 150 this morning. She will also come over to-morrow morning. The Kingston brought over 280 yesterday afternoon and will bring over another contingent to-night. The Islander came in well loaded last night and will make a special trip, leaving here to-night and returning to-morrow morning. The City of Nanaimo came down from the Fraser river to-day with the New Westminster lacrosse club and a big crowd from the Royal City. The C.P.N. Co.'s steamer Princess Louise leaves here to-morrow morning for Port Angeles, returning about noon and leaving here again about midnight. The Port Angeles contingent will thus be given an opportunity of seeing the regatta and illumination.

VICTORIANS VICTORIOUS.

The James Bay Boys Beat the Tacomans at Baseball.

That the interest in baseball is not on the decline was evidenced at the big turn out at Beacon Hill this morning to witness the game between the Tacoma nine and the James Bay boys. The international character of the match may have something to do with the enthusiasm shown, and the fact that on the anniversary of Queen Victoria's birthday Victoria boys defeated the Americans at their own national game.

The Tacomans lost the toss and were sent to bat. Whistling was the first batter, and gained first on 3 strikes owing to a wide throw by Hannon. Evans retired on strikes, but Anderson made a 2 base hit, when Whistling, who had stolen 2nd and 3rd, crossed the plate and scored. Anderson was caught in trying to make third, while Rustler struck out. Widdowson took the bat for Victoria, and first ball out of the box sent the sphere over centre for a two bagger. Franklin struck out. Hannon was caught by centre field, and Williams struck out, the side retiring without scoring. Widdowson being left on third.

In the second innings the Tacomans went out in one, two, three order, Hocker striking to Jackson, who helped to kill him on first. Pope sent a fly to Wishart on first and expired, while Burwell struck out. For Victoria Gowen hit hard, but Dickey stopped it in time to put him out at first. Hewlett surprised the crowd by making a good base hit, which Rusher failed to stop, when he took second. Wishart and Meade, however, both failed to make first, and Hewlett was left on third.

The third innings Dickey could not find Jackson after three vigorous attempts and retired. Whistling got first on balls, and after a brilliant run for second was properly caught by Widdowson. Evans struck to Williams and was put out at first. The James Bay boys made a vigorous attempt to score this time, but through clever play on the part of their opponents, failed. Jackson and Widdowson both made base hits. Franklin got out on a foul; then Hannon struck to bring Jackson in, but Dickey anticipated him, and Jackson held third, while the striker got to first. Williams tried to bring the boys in, but Whistling captured the ball in time to catch Jackson at the plate. Gowen struck out and the side was again retired for nil.

The fourth innings made no change in the game, neither side scoring.

In the fifth innings the visitors again scored. Pope struck to Franklin who threw too low and let him get 1st. Burwell knocked a fly into Hewlett's hands, but he fumbled it and Pope succeeded in reaching the plate in safety. Dickey flew out to Franklin, and Whistling gave Widdowson a fly, which of course was accepted. At this juncture the James Bays played so fast that the scorer had difficulty in tallying, and practically won the game. "Jaco" sent a bad one out to centre and stole second. Widdowson also hit the ball, and got first on a wide throw, and Franklin got first on balls. Hannon drove the sphere away out to centre and Jackson and Widdowson cantered over the plate. Franklin and Hannon also came in but were sent back to second and third. They did not stay there long, however, moving them on a stage with a box hit. Dickey was evidently tired and Gowen also hit him cleanly, bringing in Williams and also scoring himself after some wild throwing and erroneous fielding by the Tacomas. Meade also made a hit, which was repeated by Jackson. Franklin made a brave box hit and brought both Meade and Jackson home. Wishart struck out Widdowson fell at first, and Harrison struck to second. Evans making the prettiest catch of the game in collering this fly.

The sixth innings was short and had not changed matters. Evans struck high and was caught by Jackson, while Widdowson caught out both Anderson and Kershaw, after covering considerable ground. Williams fanned out, Gowen after being hit by the ball took

DEEMING IS DEAD.

The Bloodthirsty Wretch Pays the Penalty of his Crimes.

MELBOURNE, May 23.—Deeming, the murderer, was hanged here at 10 o'clock this morning for the killing of his wife, who was formerly Miss Emily Mather of Liverpool. This crime was committed in Windsor, a suburb of Melbourne, and its discovery led to the revelations at Rainhill, Liverpool, by which it was shown that Deeming, or Williams as he then called himself, had murdered a former wife and his three children. Deeming was captured at Perth, in West Australia, where he had made arrangements to marry a Miss Rounsevell.

Seventy reporters and physicians gathered in the prison yard to witness the execution, and in front, outside the wall, thousands upon thousands waited from 6 o'clock this morning to watch the black flag, and wait the signal that all was over. When Deeming was led into the yard and up to the gallows everybody was surprised to see that he was chained. As had been expected, he walked unsteadily between the guards, and several times tottered as if about to fall. His face was ashen, and he shook like a man with the palsy. Several times when the chaplain spoke to him encouragingly in an undertone Deeming parted his lips to reply, but he uttered no sound. He seemed to be stupified by his approaching death. When his arms were pinioned he wavered and would have fallen had he not been caught by the warden. At first he shook his head when his last opportunity to speak was given him, then he rallied from his stupor, and with a strong effort called out: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." He tried to say more and stood with his mouth half open, but no words came. As the noose was adjusted his knees knocked together, and he would have collapsed had he not been supported until he was swung into mid air. He died without a struggle and almost instantly. The body after being cut down was taken in charge by the prison physician, who will superintend the post mortem examination into the structure of the skull and brain.

Deeming's conduct at the last was a surprise to all who have been near him since he was sentenced. Last evening he seemed to realize for the first time that all hope was gone. Before then, despite occasional fits of despondency, he had told the prison officials that he was not born to be hung and that he would get out yet and "make it hot for his persecutors." Shortly after supper last evening he called to the keeper, and asked anxiously: "Do you think it is all up with me?" "This is your last night, Deeming," was the reply, "and you had better talk to your God instead of me." Deeming was silent for several minutes, and then inquired brokenly for the chaplain. "I have been a wild fellow," he said, "and have sins that ought to be pardoned, God knows; but I am not so bad as they have made me out. Only to think that 'poor crazy Fred' should die on the gallows." When the chaplain came, Deeming was crying. He said he wished to review the sins of his past life and to have the chaplain pray with him for forgiveness. He said he had been a good-for-nothing fellow and had injured most of the persons he had met in his life. "But the only murder I ever committed," he solemnly protested, "was when I killed Emily Mather, if I did kill her. I was crazy when I did, and the men that swore away my life have more to answer for than I." The chaplain read prayers with Deeming, and Deeming took down his Bible and read several chapters aloud. Then he grew calmer and was talking about his affection for Miss Rounsevell, when the chaplain left. He wrote a letter to Miss Rounsevell and another to Mr. Lyle, his lawyer. He told the keeper that the heaviest burden on his conscience was that he had ruined the young woman's life by the notoriety he had brought upon her. Deeming went to bed at 10 o'clock, and went to sleep almost immediately. He did not wake until 5 o'clock. He took out his Bible and read in Revelations, then made his toilet carefully and put in order his papers containing his last additions to his autobiography. He ate heartily at breakfast and drank six or seven cups of coffee. At 7 o'clock he began to be nervous and called the keeper, saying he wished to free his mind. It was then thought that the long expected confession was coming. Instead, however, Deeming began reiterating his story of his irresponsibility at the time of the murder of Miss Mather. "The people of Melbourne are hanging me," he said, "the judge and the jury, and even those perjured doctors are not the guilty ones. The people wanted to lynch me when I was brought back from Perth, and they raised such a clamor that nobody dared to tell the truth. The jury knew that I was not responsible; I could see that in their faces. I have not been a good man, but I never committed a crime in a sane moment." Deeming then wandered off incoherently to contradictory statements as regards his relation to Miss Mather, at one time saying she was still living in Australia and at another that he might have killed her in a fit of forgetfulness.

While preparations were making to take him out to the scaffold he became a pitiable sight. He cringed and cowered in a corner of his cell, first taking down his Bible, then throwing it from him, muttering to himself and then speaking loudly and incoherently to the chaplain. As the door opened to let him out he burst into tears and begged for a few moments' respite. When this was refused his mind apparently sank into a stupor. He made one or two attempts to speak and then relapsed from all effort, allowing himself to be half led, half carried from the building. The chaplain said subsequently that in all his experience he had not seen a more broken creature. Mr. Lyle, Deeming's lawyer, says he has not decided what to do with Deeming's autobiography. He has not yet had time to read much of the manuscript, and what he has read has led him to think that it has a few claims to being a truthful narrative. The spelling and writing are bad, he says, and there is evidently so much incoherent philosophizing in the work, that he fears nobody will be willing to undertake the financial risk of publishing it. The result of the post mortem examination of Deeming's brain will not be known probably for several days.

TARAWA IN REVOLT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The schooner Orion has arrived from Jaliut, Marshall Islands, with a cargo of copra. C. H. Gibson was a passenger. He said: "About the middle of last March information reached Jaliut of the assassination of the native king of the island of Tarawa. There are 2000 people on this island, and the entire population were reported in a state of civil war. Several native chiefs and their followers had rebelled against the rule of the king. One of these chiefs entered the king's home in the middle of the night and stabbed him to death. A white trader's wife reached Jaliut before we left and made an appeal to the German commissioner to send a man-of-war to Tarawa to settle the disturbances there. He declined to interfere, however, claiming want of jurisdiction, as the island of Tarawa is an independent native domain. The island has ceased to produce copra for export, as it is all consumed at home during the war."

Relic of St. Ann.

QUEBEC, Que., May 23.—Monsignor Marquis arrived here last night with the relic of St. Ann. Nobody here has seen it yet, except Cardinal Taschereau, members of his court and Professors of Laval University, with whom Monsignor Marquis is staying. Monsignor Marquis visited the shrine of St. Ann to-day, 26 miles from Quebec, where there is great anxiety to see and venerate the relics. The date of its public reception has not yet been fixed. It may be postponed till July 28th St. Ann's day.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Mrs. John Fagan, of Meriden, Conn., who says she was cured by kissing the relic of St. Ann, in this city, of a life-long illness has returned to Meriden and is performing her household duties for the first time in over ten years. So great a furore has been made by the statements of Mrs. Fagan regarding her cure that a number of Meridan invalids were on the point of visiting the relic when much to their chagrin they learned it had been removed from the church of St. Jean Baptiste and taken to Canada.

Short American Dispatches.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 23.—Mrs. Lillie O'Neal, wife of Thos. O'Neal, an engineer, confessed to her husband that she had been intimate with his fireman. He went to the railroad yard, found the fireman and shot him dead. Mrs. O'Neal has become insane.

NEWPORT, R. I., May 23.—A document was made public to-day that will create a profound impression among society people and club men. It is a petition to the mayor and city fathers to close and suppress gambling places on the Bath road and any others that may be opened elsewhere in the city of Newport. Among the leading signers are Cornelius Vanderbilt, Henry Clews, J. T. Burden, Geo. R. Fearing, Fred Pearson and others equally prominent.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Charles Gaylor, the veteran American playwright, is critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Knowles, 157 State street, Brooklyn. Mr. Gaylor is 73 years of age.

In connection with our Engineering and Surveying Department, we are opening up an office at Nelson, in the now famous Kootenay District, for the purpose of handling Real Estate and Mining in all its branches. Our partner Mr. M. S. Davys having resided in the Kootenay country for the past five years, and successfully developed valuable mining properties there, is thus able to furnish reliable information as to location and values of properties. We have secured the services of Mr. R. H. Cavill, formerly of Swansea, where he was for five years connected with the Swansea Smelter. Mr. Cavill's practical experience as manager for the past 17 years, in some of the foremost mines and mills in California, Arizona, and Mexico Central America, together with his Swansea experience, gives him a thorough knowledge of the treatment and best methods of working refractory ores.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. Smith Presented With an Address by the Congregation.

Rev. J. K. Smith, D. D., who has filled the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church for the past three or four months, pending the selection of a pastor to succeed the late Rev. D. Fraser, preached his last sermon last night. Upon conclusion of the service Dr. Smith was asked to remain, when Mr. R. Erskine, on behalf of the session and congregation, made the following address:

VICTORIA, B.C., May 22, 1892.

Rev. J. K. Smith, D.D.:

Rev. Sir and Brother in Christ—We, the undersigned members of session of the First Presbyterian Church of Pandora street, Victoria, on behalf of the members of the congregation, beg to tender you our heartfelt thanks for your constant and earnest labors in the spiritual oversight of the church during the last six months, during which you have faithfully and with power expounded the truths of the Gospel under the Divine leading of the Holy Spirit, to the benefit of many and especially those who have but recently accepted Christ. Our relations and intercourse with you have always been of a pleasant nature, and we shall long remember your visit and work amongst us. In leaving us, we wish you and Mrs. Smith "God speed" in all your future movements, and we pray that the Lord may bestow upon you His richest blessings.

(Signed) J. C. FLETT,
D. S. MCNAUGHTON,
GEORGE POTTINGER,
JOHN FULLERTON,
R. S. RANDALL,
WALTER CLARK,
THORNTON FELL,
ROBERT ERSKINE.

Dr. Smith, not expecting anything of the kind, was taken by surprise, but he made a feeling reply. He said:

GENTLEMEN,—I thank you sincerely for your good wishes for Mrs. Smith and myself, and your kind appreciation of my services in your church for the last few months. To me it has been a pleasure to occupy the pulpit, to visit the Sabbath school, to meet with the young people in their various services, and to witness their fine, energetic spirit in the erection of a new mission house and the prosecution of Sunday school and Christian work there with remarkable success. I have found good help and cheer from the brethren in the eldership and the manifestation of a similar spirit from the trustees of the church. I have been specially gratified by most cheering tokens of the blessings of the Lord upon my services. I trust that a great blessing may rest upon the whole church, and in its future history, and that the spirit of God may be abundantly poured out upon you.

Dr. Smith will leave in a day or two for New Westminster, where he will be supply for the resident clergyman, who will be absent from the city for several months.

A Hairbreadth Escape.

On Saturday evening about 8 o'clock a large bay team ran away on Government street near Fisguard and dashed south along the main street at a terrific pace. They ran clear of all the wagons and buggies on the street and reached the corner of Yates, up which they turned, still going at the the same mad gait. Miss L. George, daughter of Captain George, the well-known pilot, happened to be crossing Yates street at Government street at the moment. The flying steeds were upon her before she realised her danger. She was struck by the shoulder of one of the horses and dashed to the ground, sustaining painful but not dangerous injuries. The young lady was at once picked up and carried into Cryderman's drug store, where her hurts were attended to skillfully. The injuries consist of some ugly bruises around the neck and shoulders. Miss George's escape was nothing short of miraculous; the rate at which the horses were going made it certain that had she been struck fairly by them a most melancholy accident would have to be now chronicled. The team pursued their hurricane way up Yates street for some distance before being caught.

Car Service to the Park.

Great progress is being made with the tramway extension to the park, via Menzies street. The track occupies not quite two-thirds of the street, and the space left at the sides presents a neat puzzle, a sort of how-d'ye-square-the-circle? theorem, the solution of which is not nearly so apparent as the q.e.d. If a buggy happen to come down this portion of Menzies street and a tram car happen to come up at the same time, one must give way. The tram cannot leave the rails; ergo, the buggy must borrow a small slice of the sidewalk and take chances on the poles. This piece of line, however, is a splendid thing—for the tramway Company—and will doubtless be one of the best patronised pieces of track they own, during the summer months. It is understood the cars will be running on the extension before June is very far advanced.

Testing the White Wings.

Most of the yachts which took part in to-day's sailing races were out yesterday trying their "white wings" in the very faint breeze which blew in from the straits. The wind was very tantalising and died away sometimes for an hour or so, leaving the trim little yachts "as motionless as painted ships upon a painted ocean." In the slight catspaws which intervened the helmsmen had a brief but precious chance to test their craft in cruising about, close hauling, luffing and the various manœuvres known to seamen for giving a boat the fairest opportunity to do her best.

From Forest and Stream.

The Siwash in all his glory was in town to-day in swarms and arrayed in holiday raiment of pronounced patterns. The lovely klootchmen followed in the wake of their superior lords and kept a gazelle eye on the "kids," who gambolled around and thought it was just fun to come up to Victoria with the governor and ma. The stores reaped the benefit of their visit, and it is estimated that the guileless descendants of the aborigines left a good many hundred dollars in lieu of the assorted stosks of goods they bore away.

KASLO CITY

The Centre of the Great Kootenay Mining District in B.C.

This young and thriving City is situated on Kootenay Lake at the mouth of Kaslo River, within close proximity to the famous Kaslo and Slocan mines.

The discoveries during the present year of numerous mines of remarkably rich ore and great width on Kaslo river and east of Slocan Lake are well known to the public. They have attracted the attention of capitalists and miners all over the continent, and there is no question that these mines, which are tributary to KASLO CITY, will receive more attention than those of any other section of Kootenay.

A spacious hotel has been built for the accommodation of travelers. Stores and other buildings have also been erected. The townsite is being cleared and streets graded so as to forward the large amount of building that will be in progress as soon as material is secured for construction. A trail has been built to the mines, which will be replaced by a wagon road as soon as the work can be prosecuted. The grade to the mines is an easy one. An application for a charter to build a railway line into the mines from Kaslo will be made at the coming session of the Legislature. Everything is being done that circumstances will permit to give easy access to the mines and furnish supplies for the miners. KASLO CITY will have a large population this summer. It will become the supply depot for the richest mining section yet discovered in British Columbia. Unlike many mountain towns, it is most favorably situated on a gentle slope from the waters of a sheltered bay on Kootenay Lake, and is supplied for domestic and manufacturing purposes, by a large stream of pure cold water.

If you wish to participate in the profits that enchanced values will bring don't fail to invest in Kaslo City. Lots are on sale at the offices of all the Leading Real Estate Brokers in the Province.

AN APPEAL

MR. MAYOR AND BOARD OF ALDERMEN:

While settling up last year's accounts, please give your undivided attention to the unsettled state of the weather.

You might cause an awning to be stretched over a part of the Park so as to protect the flowers from the wind, and also allow ladies and children to enjoy a rest with comfort.

And the streets should be more often sprinkled, so as to prevent the dust from injuring the many novelties that the undersigned now displays.

And as the Government is about to erect a new building fronting on Birdcage Walk, that a By-Law be placed before the ratepayers asking for a loan to pave Government street, and to build a retaining wall along the Bridge, thus giving employment to the many willing hands who are at present unable to obtain work.

That the question now agitating the public mind is whether the hats, parasols, gloves, mantles and dress fabrics now shown at the Lansdowne House, 86 Yates street, are excelled by any in the city, will be left to your honorable body at your leisure to decide.

And your petitioner will ever pray.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Queen Victoria to-day completes the seventy-third year of her life, and in a few days will have completed her fifty-fifth year on the throne of Great Britain. The length, the tranquility and the prosperity of her reign cause it to be regarded by the people of the British Empire as an outward sign of the solidity and permanency of British dominion and British institutions. Therefore apart from the affection and esteem which the Queen's good qualities have gained for her, this feeling that her long occupation of the throne is symbolical of the progress and prosperity of the realm may well cause her subjects to rejoice in the opportunity of again celebrating her natal day. It is also a fact that admiration for Queen Victoria as a woman and a sovereign, and satisfaction at the prolongation of her reign, are not confined to British people. In all countries where civilization and liberty prevail there is an inclination to rejoice in the continuance of the relationship between a Queen and a people so happily united. Canadians and all the people in the British Empire have good reason to celebrate to-morrow and to wish Queen Victoria "many happy returns."

LORD SALISBURY'S SPEECH.

Lord Salisbury may flatter himself on having caused a sensation, even if no other result should follow his recent speech on the trade question. Public opinion in England is overwhelmingly in favor of the continuance of free trade, and it will in all likelihood remain so, despite the Conservate leader's utterances at Hastings. Lord Salisbury did not declare in favor of protection; the central idea of his newly adopted trade doctrine is that Great Britain should so far depart from the free trade scheme as to retaliate on those nations which impose high tariff taxes on British goods. "The important point," he said, "is that while the nations are negotiating to obtain the reach of others' commercial favors, none are anxious about the favor of Great Britain, who has stripped herself of the armor and weapons with which the battle is fought. The attitude which we have taken in regarding it as disloyal to the glorious and sacred doctrines of free trade to levy duties on anybody, for the sake of anything we get thereby, may be noble, but is not businesslike. If you intend holding your own in this conflict of tariffs you must be prepared to refuse nations who injure you, access to your markets." The retaliation move which Lord Salisbury recommends is very different from a policy of "protection to home industries," such as is followed in Canada and the United States, It would, nevertheless, be so great a departure from the trade policy of Great Britain that its advocacy by the Premier has startled the British public, Lord Salisbury's friends and followers being as much surprised, apparently, as his opponents. The Conservatives, or, at least, the vast majority of them, are very much irritated as well, for they feel that their leader's utterances will alienate many of the party's adherents at the coming elections. The Liberals could have wished no more effective a weapon than this speech for use in the political campaign. From the point of view of party tactics, Lord Salisbury has made a serious mistake.

There is one portion of the speech which we may be allowed to commend to the advocates of the Imperial Trade League scheme. Lord Salisbury said: "We complain of the United States, and it so happens that the United States maintains and furnishes us with articles which are essential to the food of the people, and with raw materials which are essential to our manufacturers. We cannot exclude either without serious injury to ourselves, but there is an enormous mass of imports, such as wine, spirits, silk, gloves and laces from countries besides the United States, which are merely luxuries and of which diminished consumption could be risked in order to secure access to the markets of our neighbors." The declaration that Great Britain cannot exclude United States breadstuffs and raw material is practically an intimation to such people as Col. Howard Vincent and our own Mr. McNeill that a preferential tariff in favor of colonial products in these lines is out of the question. The articles which the Conservative Premier mentioned as being proper objects for retaliatory duties are such as the colonies do not furnish, and therefore such retaliatory duties as he had in mind when delivering his Hastings speech would not benefit colonial trade.

THE BODIES FOUND.

A Party of Searchers Bring the Bodies of Kelly and Sharpe to the Surface.

The members of the Y. M. I. and a crew from the navy yesterday found the bodies of Joe Kelly and Sharpe, the stoker, who were drowned a few days ago. A party consisting of Thos. Deasy, W. H. Harris, T. F. J. Sehl, C. Palmer, L. Gray, M. Steele, and M Dowdall, took up a number of large fish hooks, and after sounding for some time the brought the body of North, one of the stokers, to the surface. The body slipped, however, before it was placed in the boat. While trying to get they body up again, one of the party brought Kelly's body to the surface. It was placed in the boat and brought to Lockhart's undertaking parlors.

The funeral of the two sailors will take place at 7:30 o'clock to-morrow morning to the naval cemetery, and will be attended by the comrades of the dead men.

The funeral of Joseph Kelly will take place at 9 o'clock, when it will leave 81 Humboldt street and St. Andrew's Cathedral at 9:30. It will be attended by the Y. M. I. and the Typographical Union in a body, and the Victoria City band. The Y. M. I have taken charge of the arrangements. The printers' wreath will encircle the suggestive number, "30."

Shortly after Kelly's body was found the crew from the navy found Sharpe's body and brought it to Hayward's undertaking rooms.

The body of North, the other stoker, was found this afternoon.

THE INQUEST.

An inquest was held this morning, the principal witness being Walter Kurtz, who was in the boat with the unfortunate men. He said that when the accident occurred, North, one of the sailors, was standing up in the boat with his hands on his (witness') shoulders. Witness was pulling, and as he went forward to catch the water, the boat dipped and North went overboard. He righted the boat again, but just as he had done so, Sharpe stood on the gunwale and jumped overboard, the lurch sending Kelly out at the other side. The boat then filled and went over, he. Kurtz, coming up on the other side. He got on the boat and saw the three men in the water all swimming well. He fell off the boat and called out, "Goodbye, boys, I'm gone." He then got hold of the painter of the boat and towed it to the opposite shore where he emptied the water out of it. He searched for his companions, but could not find them. When the boat went over she was about 40 yards from shore.

The jury brought in a verdict of accidental drowning.

VANCOUVER NEWS.

Two More Smallpox Cases Discovered—No Cause for Alarm.

VANCOUVER, May 23.—Two additional cases of smallpox have been discovered and the patients removed to the hospital. One of the victims, John Barnett, was employed in the C. P. R. ticket office, and through this means had come in contact with passengers of the Empress of Japan. The other patient, a laborer, had been working on the dock. So far but two deaths have occurred, those of Mrs. Bibby and Hyde. Mrs. Bibby's death was directly due to neglect, and would bear investigation. Citizens do not seem alarmed, and seem satisfied that the disease is in check. It was reported this afternoon that two other cases had just been discovered. This was not verified, however. Governor Moresby is kept busy vaccinating Indians.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Arthur Barnes was thrown from his horse while riding and had an arm broken.

Scarcity of Water.

Residents of the higher portions of the city are once more complaining strongly of the scanty water supply which reaches them. Aquatic Toboggan Slide.

Bathing in the waters of the Arm seems to be a more popular amusement than it has ever been at this time of the year before, and Watson brothers, aquatic toboggan slide is evidently the cause. Yesterday and to-day hundreds of swimmers attired in the conventional bathing costume patronized the chute and appeared to enjoy the sport immensely.

Elaborate Tatooing.

The tatooing on the arms of the late R. Sharp, a stoker of H. M. S. Warspite, who was drowned in the Gorge last week, is very elaborate. first, but trying second was caught. Hewlett died trying to make third.

The seventh innings Rustler and Hacker were both struck out, and Pope after making a safe hit for 1st was cleverly put out at 2nd, Hannon making a fine throw from the home plate. Jackson for the Bays sent a sky raker away over left, but in trying to make 3rd was stopped.

In the eighth innings the visitors picked up somewhat, owing to careless play by the Bays. Gowen muffed a fly from Whistling, who scored, owing to a wide throw by Hannon. Evans and Ruduran also scored. The Victoria boys retired for nil.

The ninth innings adding nothing to Tacoma's score, there being no need of further play the game was given to Victoria, the score standing 5 to 13, as follows:—

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Tacoma	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	3	0	5

THE BICYCLE RACES.

A Splendid Exhibition---The Fastest Time Made in the Province.

There was a big, good-humored and not very easily managed crowd all over the course when Starter W. Christie rang the dinner bell to announce the the first race. The police were painfully conspicuous by their absence, as usual, and the committee, assisted by Mr. Constable Carter, had a tough time of it getting the multitude back to the ropes. It is a fact that not until the fourth race did a policeman appear on the scene and attempt to keep order.

Laurenson, of Vancouver, holder of the TIMES championship medal, announced that he would not enter any of the races on account of the track not being suitable. He has trained on a track suitable for his style of machine and the course at Beacon Hill is not, being too heavy and fit only for safeties.

The first race was the one mile ordinaries, roadsters only. The entries were: F. W. Bonne, riding on 84 model Star, Tacoma; H. Plows, on a 54 inch Brantford, Victoria; W. Walton, on a 52 Humber roadster, Vancouver. The Tacoman was inside and led from the start; half way round, Walton who was on a tall machine struck some soft ground and came a cropper, but was up again in a moment and after the others in fine style. Bonne rode a fine race and crossed the line in 3:39, considerably ahead of Walton, second. The Tacomans present yelled themselves hoarse for joy.

The next race was the Kerr and Begg, one mile open championship. The entries were Fred Turner, Westminster; Jeffrey, Victoria; Bonne, Tacoma. Bonne, again on the inside track, took the lead for a short distance. Turner was riding easily and quietly, took the lead at the half mile, increasing the distance as he reached the home stretch, when he put in a spurt and crossed the scratch 300 feet ahead of Jeffrey, Bonne not being in it this time. Turner's time was 3:06 2-5. Westminster's cheers could be heard all over the park as their handsome young champion was escorted to the tent.

Race number three, the green race, one mile, brought out a varied assortment of riders and machines. They were: F. J. Dalby, Victoria; H. M. Martin, Westminster; A. Tiedemann, Victoria; T. G. Moody, Victoria; W. Bradley, Victoria; and the president, secretary-treasurer, bugler and captain of the Esquimalt team entered in the person of Mr. W. J. Muir. The race was a very interesting one, and the field bunched to the home corner when Moody made a grand spurt, disengaged himself from the crowd and came in first in 3.16½, closely followed by Martin, Bradley and Dalby, a length each behind the other.

Race four, two miles, awakened the greatest interest visable up to that time. The crowds seemed to have doubled and the efforts of the police were unable to keep them off the track. The entries were Fred. Turner, Westminster; L. Potter, Vancouver; Jeffrey, Victoria; T. W. Bonne, Tacoma. Betting ran quite high on this event and the Westminster boy was clearly the favorite. Potter set the pace and led at the mile in 3:10½; he was evidently laboring, however, while Turner, who came third, was taking it ominously easy. Jeffrey was riding gamely and received cheers. As they came along the home stretch Turner could be seen leading and going like the wind followed closely by Potter and Jeffrey. Bonne dropped out early in the race. Turner won in the remarkable good time of 6:28; Potter seecond, Jeffrey third.

When the TIMES championship two mile open race was called, excitement reigned supreme. Turner objected to the handicapping and refused to compete. The proposed handicaps were Tiedemann 275 yards, Potter 200. The difference of opinion was finally adjusted to Turner's satisfaction, making Tiedemann 200, and Potter 150. Turner had gained the greater part of the handicaps at half distance and was putting on the steam in grand style. He finished amidst the wildest applause on all sides in the fastest time ever made in the Province, 5.55, Potter second.

The officers were: Handicapper, C. A. Godson; starter, W. Christie; judge, J. E. Wilson; referee, C. A. Godson.

BUSINESS CHANCE

A GOOD RUSTLER can make money by calling at my store and buying my merry-go-round. The outfit consists of horses, engine, tent, sleighs, organ, etc., and is movable. The sale price can be cleared in two holidays. A great success for the right man.

THE FAVORITE LOST.

Leap Year Surprises Even Her Admirers and Wins the Queen's Plate.

Maud C. Takes the 2:30 Race, Winning Three Consecutive Heats ---A Great Day.

On account of the lateness of the hour at which the races started and the time lost between the different events on Saturday afternoon, the TIMES was able to give the result of but one race, the one mile dash, and the first heat of the 2:30 class trot.

The horses got away well together after numerous attempts. Maud C and Belle Watts fouled just after the start, giving Col. Stoner the lead. He maintained the advantage to the end, coming under the wire in 2:33, Belle Watts a good second and Maud C third.

The second heat was the prettiest exhibition of the day, and as the horses passed the grand stand at the half they were loudly applauded. Belle Watts got the worst of the start, but at the quarter she was up with the leaders and the three went neck and neck for a hundred yards. At the pole Watts was in the lead, but lost the position to Col. Stoner before the half was reached and Maud C, who was in the third place at the half, pulled herself together at the three-quarter pole and came down the home stretch a length ahead of Stoner.

Then there was a pretty race for the wire, the two coming under almost together, Stoner a little in advance. On account of a foul on the far side of the track the heat was given to Maud C. Time 2:32¾. Hickey was behind Maud C in this heat, having taken Tait's place.

In the third heat Belle Watts took the lead from the start, both Maud C. and Stoner breaking and giving the black mare an advantage of 10 lengths. Stoner did not regain his feet throughout the heat, running all the way around. Maud C. soon got down to work, however, and had closed up the gap between her and Watts before the half was reached. She trotted steadily during the last half and forged ahead on the home stretch, Belle Watts also trotting steadily under the whip. The bay mare went under the wire two lengths in the lead. Time 2:33¾.

Knight took charge of Belle Watts in the fourth heat, and although she trotted well she could not get the lead that Maud C. had obtained. Harry Stone, who was driving Stoner, did not hear the starting gong ring and pulled up, leaving the Colonel out of the race. At the last turn Belle Watts was close on Hickey's wheel, but Maud pulled out and went under the wire first, winning with ease, in 2:37.

Following is the summary :—

THE QUEEN'S PLATE.

A great deal of interest was taken in this event, the colors of the different horses being displayed on the carriages in the ground. Gertie remained the favorite up till the last, although the admirers of Amphion were not slow to back him. Leap Year, the winner, was not a favorite, as it was known that she had a bad shoulder, which would perhaps lose the race for her. But she seemed to forget her lameness when she got among the other horses. Her jockey, W. Millington, is not a stranger on the track and no doubt his riding helped the mare out a great deal.

Ilex took the lead from the start and maintained his position for some time, closely followed by Bounty. At the mile Ilex was still in the lead, with Leap Year second and Gertie and Domino neck and neck for third place. In the last half Leap Year took first place, and on the stretch Gertie, the favorite, took second place and worked hard to catch the leader, but it was no use, and Leap Year won the Queen's plate for 1892 and a purse of $500.

The following gentlemen have charge of the meet: Timekeeper, Simon Tolmie; starters, William Dalby and Hon. C. E. Pooley; judges, trotting, M. Miller, A. K. Munro, Thomas Shaw; running, B. Gordon, N. P. Snowden and R. P. Rithet.

THE SECOND DAY.

There was a fairly good crowd at the Driving park this afternoon to see the races. There were three events on the programme, the free for all trotting and pacing; the B. C. Handicap, 1¼ mile, and the Indian pony race, one mile dash.

NOTES.

Among those present on Saturday were the Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Dickson, and Mayor Beaven and Miss Beaven.

Leap Year took a three hours nap before she started in the Queen's Plate.

"Billy" McNeill and Al. McNeill, the owners of Leap Year, and Millington, the jockey, were the happiest men in town on Saturday night. The former did not think their horse could win, but the jockey was confident and he rode to win.

The cars ran a little better on Saturday than they did during the fall meeting.

BY LANTERN LIGHT.

A sporting "gent" who came over from the Sound yesterday stated in reply to enquiries that the prize fight between Saunders, of Nanaimo, and an unknown, of Tacoma, took place on Thursday morning in a cow stable in the outskirts of that city. There were thirty persons present and the battle was fought by the light of stable lanterns, in a fourteen foot ring, bare hands, London rules. Guards were posted all round the stable to give warning of the approach of the police and extraordinary precautions were taken to prevent interruption. There was none. Nineteen rounds were fought, the Nanaimo man winning by sheer grit. The Tacoman was taller and heavier, but wasted his strength in the earlier rounds by wild rushes and swinging blows which invariably missed their mark. Saunders maintained a steady straight jabbing at his antagonist's ribs which began to tell early in the fight. The ninth round was the tamest, both men were sparring for wind, but the tenth was, in the horrible argot of the "sporting gent," a "daisy." Both contestants sprang out of their corners at the call of time and rushed like wild bulls at one another, meeting in the centre with a crash of blows. Saunders planted a terrific right-handed blow on the Tacoman's forehead, knocking him down and almost out. He rose in eight seconds, however, and fought the Nanaimoite to the ropes with the fury of a tiger. The referee's suppressed calls of "break away" had no effect and he had to forcibly part the men. The call of time saved the Nanaimo man in this round. In the first round Saunders cleverly slipped a a heavy rush by the unknown and countered with his left on the latter's ribs. The Tacoman grew weaker each round and in the eighteenth round presented a sickening spectacle. He had been dressed in white but was now a mass of stiffening gore, from the crown of his head to his ankles. Several of the spectators left the barn completely sickened. The Nanaimo man also showed signs of a terrible encounter. In the nineteenth round both the combatants staggered out of their corners, met in the centre, struck at one another in a dazed way and then stood still. The Nanaimo man seemed to have regained some strength, and, summoning it all for a final effort, dealt his antagonist the coup-de-grace, in sporting parlance "putting him to sleep." A hurried retreat was then made from the neighborhood. The Tacoma police are now anxious to interview the principals and backers in the affair. The winner may be pitted affainst a local aspirant for fistic glory.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

Taken to the Asylum---A Land Slide Causes Ten Hours Delay.

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 23.—David Wilson, aged 30, of Vancouver, who came to Westminster on Sunday, has been taken to the asylum. Wilson is a religious maniac. He kneels down in the street and prays, believing he is going to be hanged.

The Catholics of Westminster will extend to the Catholic arch-bishops and bishops a reception on their arrival in Westminster next week.

A land slide on the Canadian Pacific caused a ten hour delay to the eastern train to-day.

No new cases of small pox are reported, the case of the man Watt, of Millside, is being carefully watched by the authorities. No spread of the contagion is likely.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

The Report of the Revising Committee Before the General Assembly.

PORTLAND, Ogn., May 23.—The report of the committee appointed to revise the Confession of Faith was presented this morning by Dr. W. C. Roberts. It contains two new chapters, one relating to the work of the Holy Spirit and another to the missionary spirit. Besides these new chapters, 26 sections in eighteen chapters have been changed. Several of the members of the committee have signed the report, but have made exceptions to certain parts of it. The section upon which there will be most discussion is in the third chapter, and is as follows, the brackets indicating omitted particles:

"The rest of mankind God (was) pleased saw fit according to the unsearchable counsel of His own will, whereby he expendeth or withholdeth mercy as He pleaseth (for the glory of His sovereign power over his creatures to pass by) not to elect unto everlasting life (but) and (to ordain) them hath He ordained to dishonor and wrath for their sin, to the praise of His glorious justice; (yet so as thereby neither is any limitation put upon the offer of salvation to all upon condition of faith in Christ, nor is restraint laid upon the freedom of any one to hinder his acceptance of this offer). Yet hath he no pleasure in the death of the wicked nor is it his decree but the wickedness of their own hearts which restraineth and hindereth them from accepting the free offer of His grace made in the Gospel."

The section relating to elect infants is worthy of mention. By the old Confession the inference was left that some infants went to hell, as the wording "elect infants" implied that there were non-elect infants. The new section clears that mystery, reading as follows: "Infants dying in infancy, and all other persons who are not guilty of actual transgression, are included in the election of grace, and are regenerated and are saved by Christ through the Spirit, who worketh when and where and how He pleaseth, so also are other elect persons who are not outwardly called by the ministers of the word."

The only other essential change is in a section relating to the Roman Catholic church. In the unrevised Confession the Pope of Rome is called "anti-Christ," "that man of sin," and "son of perdition." In the new Confession the section reads as follows: "The Lord Jesus Christ is the only Head of the Church, and the claims of the Pope of Rome or any other human authority to be the vicar of Christ and head of the church universal is without warrant in Scripture or fact, and is a usurpation dishonoring to the Lord Jesus Christ." In another chapter where reference is made to the Roman Catholic church, the change is made from "Popish sacrifice of the mass" to "Roman Catholic doctrine of the sacrifice of the mass."

The men who have opposed revision from the outset intend to make a fight on the constitutionality of this Assembly's taking definite action on the report, claiming that by a new rule or law made at Detroit last year this report must go to a special committee oppointed for the purpose of receiving it, who shall decide whether or not the changes proposed shall be recommended to the Presbyterians for adoption. Thus far the conservatives were defeated two years ago and a revision ordered. It is possible that even now by a technicality they may defeat the entire work, for the committee appointed at this meeting may decide that the revision proposed is unnecessary or unwise.

New Postal Cards.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 23.—The Morgan Envelope company of this city has received from the U. S. Government an order for 24,000,000 postal cards, to be doubled in the middle, one half to be utilized by the sender, the other half for the answer if the receiver sees fit to make one. The cards will be 5½ by 3½ inches in size and will cost two cents.

NANAIMO NEWS.

Spilled in the Bay---To-morrow's Celebration---Nearly an Accident.

NANAIMO, May 23. — Mr. A. Mace, while out sailing yesterday in company with the Misses Brown, suffered a spill. Mace does not know how the accident happened, but says the boat went over suddenly. The affair was seen from the shore and No. 25 put out to the rescue. The steamer Cutch happened on the scene and Captain Johnson took the rescued party on board and also towed the boat in. The news of the accident soon spread and when the steamer came to the wharf there were between two and three hundred people assembled. Beyond a wetting the party did not suffer from their adventure.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trade held on Friday night in the rooms at the back of the Y.M.C.A., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—Mr. J. A. Pleace, president; Mr. W. H. S. Perkins, vice-president; and Mr. M. Wolfe, secretary and treasurer.

Every preparation has been completed to celebrate Her Majesty's birthday in this city in a grand way. The "Green" has been placed in excellent condition and the different approaches to it have also been made to represent a more cheerful appearance. The militia have been notified to parade and will fire a feu de joie. Quite a number intend to spend the day at the capital and the excursion train to-morrow will be well patronized.

Mr. U. E. Dickson came near being seriously hurt yesterday by the bolting of his horse. The buggy collided with a telephone pole in front of the Free Press office and the shafts immediately parted from the body of the buggy, and the force of the collision threw Mr. Dickenson violently headlong to the ground but fortunately without injury. The horse was afterwards captured.

Another one of the large panes of plate glass for the Green building was broken on Saturday when it was about to be placed in position. All the other glass has been put in and another pane will have to come from Victoria.

Though Your Condition be Critical and Alarming, There is Still Hope.

HOW YOU MAY BECOME FREE.

Yield not to dark despair weary and afflicted one; there is hope, notwithstanding the fact that deep darkness seems to have gathered round you. We are fully aware of the fact that your condition is serious and alarming; your face, eyes and general appearance indicate both mental and physical sufferings of a severe and most dangerous character. We perceive you are a nervous sufferer; your restless eyes, your colorless face, your twitching muscles, trembling hands, all these proclaim your infirmity. You are sleepless, restless, despondent, morose and dyspeptic; all these troubles are from a disorganized nervous system.

You admit all these facts—you confess that your condition is critical. Any further argument on your part you know is useless and of no avail; you now cry out for a remedy to restore, strengthen and heal. You ask for something more efficacious and healing than anything you have yet used. Now we point you to the fount of life—that heaven-given power to humanity—that can raise up to new and vigorous life. It is Paine's Celery Compound, the remedy that has already saved thousands from the toils and darkness of nerve diseases, insanity, dread paresis and the grave.

You and your friends know of it, and have some knowledge of its wondrous powers. No medicine of the present day has been more thoroughly tested in our country, and no other has so many victories and triumphs placed to its credit. There is a certainty of its work in your case, poor sufferer: it will give you that great boon—health—which you now pray for so earnestly and devoutly. Your life is in jeopardy and peril if Paine's Celery Compound is not used. Honesty of purpose, your family's interests and the country's good call for a trial of this grand agent without delay.

Fire in a Tunnel.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 23.—All trains on the Columbus and Western Railroad were stopped yesterday. The cause was a disastrous fire in the Crousa mountain tunnel, 20 miles from Birmingham. It is supposed that a spark from an engine set the timber of the tunnel on fire. Fire engines were sent from the city. It will be several days before the flames are checked. The construction of the tunnel cost $1,000,000, and the damage will be very great.

Bunco O'Brien Captured.

LONDON, May 23.—Thomas O'Brien, the famous bunco steerer, who was extradited from England to the State of New York and escaped from officers in that state ofter having been convicted and sentenced to state prison, was arrested in France to-day. He was captured at Havre while leaving the steamer Marseilles, which left New Orleans on May 8th for Havre and Antwerp.

Henry E. and Humphrey Edmonds came down Saturday from the Royal City to witness the sports.

J. A. Russell, Geo. Calender, L. G. McPhillips and A. E. Suckling, of Vancouver, are at the Driard.

John Clute, junior, one of the Royal City's rising young lawyers, was noted in the throng to-day with his customary smile.

A. B. Mackenzie, the leading amateur sporting man of New Westminster, was one of the noticeable figures among the well-dressed men in the circle of judges, referees and so on at the park to-day.

Judge Berah Brown, ex-mayor of Seattle, now a resident of Tacoma, the oldest editor in the state of Washington, is visiting in the city. The judge has great respect for the meteor flag of England, under which his ancestors achieved considerable renown.

B. M. Austin, general passenger agent of the N. P., of St. Paul, accompanied by Mrs. Austin, and C. G. Chandler, general passenger for the same road at Tacoma, and Mrs. Stone, of Minneapolis, are domiciled at the Dallas for the holidays.

H. L. Gulline, of Seattle, is one of the Tacoma eleven. Mr. Gulline is an old Victorian, who has prospered in Seattle. He will go to Vancouver after the sports to close a large contract for the anti-toredo coating for piles for which he is agent.

W. E. Baines, of the Coos Bay Railway Co., Oregon, is at present visiting old friends here. Mr. Baines was for several years business manager of the TIMES, but for the last five years has been engaged in railroad contracting in California and Oregon. Strange to say, he does not seem to regret having quit newspaper work.
